Emmy

Emmy is a 21-year-old third year college student major in English in Boston. She works part-time job as an editor for school magazine. Her major and job requires her to sit in front of screen a lot, so sometimes she likes to take a walk in her leisure time. She owns a cat in her small rental place. She sometimes wonders if she can take her cat out for a little adventure. The problem is, she does not know where is the best spot for her cat in Boston area to take a walk because her cat doesn't like dogs and noisy place. Emmy is hoping to find a place that she can bring her cat and also make it feels comfortable.
